While deployed in Iraq, Marine Corporal Megan Leavey lets the pressures of military life get to her head. After one of her many disciplinary hearings, she is ordered to clean out the regiment's K9 unit. While working on her assigned tasks, Leavey identifies with one extremely energetic dog in the unit. This dog, named Rex, soon becomes Leavey's closest companion. Thanks to Leavey's special relationship with Rex, she is able to help dozens of her fellow soldiers from extremely dangerous situations.
